How to sell - Automotive Auctions

Our auctions are open to the public for all consignments and purchases, whether you are a private consignor, wholesaler, franchise dealer or a company looking to sell your fleet surplus items we are capable of facilitating your needs.

With our extensive marketing program which includes radio, print and our interactive website, your consignment will receive considerable exposure.

In order to maximize your dollar return, we strongly suggest contacting one of our experienced sales representatives to inquire about exposure in our marketing campaign which includes our color brochure.

With over 40 years' experience in the automotive auction industry, Michener Allen offers flexible options for selling your Vehicles and RV's the most common consignment process is a straight commission contract. However, we can customize a contract and auction proposal to meet your needs.

When consigning through Michener Allen Auctioneering Ltd., you can start the process by filing out the online consignment form in the drop down menu of "HOW TO SELL" or simply bring the vehicle or RV to your nearest Michener Allen office (see contact info for locations). We require proof of ownership to enter into a consignment agreement which outlines a sale date, ownership particulars, commissions and all applicable fees. Once auction is complete, generally the automotive consignments are paid out within 10 business days.

Any of our Michener Allen Sales team will be happy to answer any questions you may have in selling your vehicle(s) or RV(s).
