How to sell - Industrial Auctions

Michener Allen's Unreserved Industrial Auctions are open to the public for all consignments and purchases. With over 40 years' experience in the auction industry, Michener Allen offers flexible options for selling your Equipment and all Industrial related items.

Selling with Michener Allen

Although most consignors take advantage of our straight commission contract, Michener Allen also offers customized contracts to fit your needs including guarantee pricing and out right purchases. Michener Allen also offers services such as transport arrangements, steam cleaning, decal removals, and detailing on site. Too many items to transport to one of our sites? Michener Allen will come to you! Our company has the capability to sell onsite anywhere Canada. Contact one of our experienced sales representatives to receive an auction proposal that is right for you.

Advertising

Michener Allen's extensive marketing and advertising campaign can be taken advantage by all our customers. Our radio, news prints, industry related magazines & Webpages (including Rock & Dirt, Market Book, & Equipment Trader) also our own interactive website is constantly promoting our upcoming auctions. In order to maximize your dollar return, we strongly suggest contacting one of experienced sales representatives to inquire about exposure in our marketing campaign which includes our color brochure.

Selling World Wide

All items consigned to our Unreserved Industrial & Equipment auctions are available for online bidding giving your consignments the opportunity to sell worldwide. Michener Allen is also a member of the ICAN Group, an affiliation of auction companies across Canada who work together to service national contracts such as TransCanada Pipelines, Canadian Pacific Railway, Eastlink and many others. No matter where in Canada your consignment is located, Michener Allen Auctioneering Ltd. can sell it for you.
